HOMELESS PEOPLE ARE AT RISK OF MODERN SLAVERY

They are targeted by traffickers at drop-ins, shelters, and on the streets.

They are offered work and promised money, and sometimes alcohol or drugs.

The promises will turn out to be a lie. They will work long hours for little or no pay and under threat of violence.

Have you heard stories of...

- being approached at a shelter or drop-in by someone offering work
- physical abuse or untreated injuries
- unusual anxiety of those in positions of authority
- extreme fear of being watched
- working for no/little pay
- working in high risk areas like construction or hand car washes
- not being allowed to leave their place of work
- having no control of ID.
